

Kirlian Photos of Orgone and the Influence of Orgone on the Human Aura

Kirlian Photography was developed in eastern Europe and today it takes pictures of energy and auras.

The following are some photographs of orgone by itself - which puts out a beautiful blue and purple energy and then pictures of the effect of orgone on the human aura.

The orgone that was used is stated below the picture.

Pictures of Orgone by itself.

Notice the Blue and Purples in the picture. Others have reported seeing this blue energy.

The yellow color on the right side are orbs.

After seeing the photos of the Orgone and then its effects on the human aura, it is no surprise to see why nature and animals love it.

Aura Color Attributes

Red - high energy, strong will, leadership survival instincts

Pink - love passion, romance. Person achieved a perfect balance between spiritual awareness and material existence.

Orange - creative artistic, sensitive considerate, compassion, self control, a sign of power. When orange becomes a strong point, it usually contributes to a yellow halo, which then becomes gold.

Yellow - intellectual, analytical, independent, personal power. Free and releasing vital forces. Spiritual teachers have yellow halos. "Buddha and Christ had yellow halos extending to their arms."

Green - growth, healing, teacher, abundance. Green thought indicates a restful state and healing.

Blue - communication, hard worker, practical. Darker blue - natural psychic. Eased nerve system. People with blue as a strong point in their aura are relaxed and balanced. Electric blue can override any other color in the aura. When a person is receiving or transmitting information in a telepathic communication their aura is blue.

Turquoise - powerful healing ability, magnetic energy. These people can do many things simultaneously and are good organizers.

Gold - happy, high degree of wisdom, spiritual intellect. Yellow auras move into gold as a person grows spiritually.

Peach - joy, humor

Coral - learning new information

White - This is a color that is not seen too much in an aura because it is more like a "noise" - it can indicate lack of harmony.

without Orgone.

Picture of aura holding Pillar of Fire
Very strong healing on the feminine side - where the arm actually becomes invisible.
Stress is leaving the face.

This picture shows the aura with the Pillar of Fire Pendant.

Electric Blue is in the aura when a person is receiving or transmitting information.

It is not visible in this picture
but on the actual picture there was a strong line of Connection to the Infinite where the line is indicated.

As we explore which pendants do what, we may then know what to wear or which orgone will assist us in accomplishing the various things that we choose or the healings that we desire.

The Orgone pieces in this pictures are Love, Praise and Gratitude, Pillar of Fire, a Rose, Victory, Blue Flame and Violet Flame. Every color of the rainbow is present here. This is a wonderful set to meditate with and this really is healing the masculine as you can see by the colors on left arm.

Notice the angelic colors.

Teal    Gold/Yellow

There is a rainbow of colors here. What a wonderful set to have when meditating or even when sleeping or just in the home in order to live in this energy.
This is the same picture without arrows.

3 Roses with the Honor Flame are being held in this picture. It is interesting to observe the shift in the colors and to observe the healing on the feminine/right arm.

The strong rose color over the heart center does not have the yellow around it as in the pictures above.

So as we continue to discover what this special orgone can do, our lives can be assisted exponentially.

Our next explorations will be with different people and animals to see how orgone may affect their auras.
